

Career Entry (all genders) - Business Tax- Financial Services Industries

Our tax team is looking for you!

Our Tax Team offers integrated tax services that help our customers to successfully manage local and global challenges. Do you want to advise discerning customers on different tax issues?

On an entry level you will be part of our Financial Services Tax (FSI) team and take a vital role within our team of specialists, supporting them in tax advisory and compliance projects for Swiss and international banks, insurance and trust companies as well as asset managers.

How you can make an impact

- Embrace the opportunity to take on functions with client contact and responsibility for cross-divisional projects in various industries from day one
- Get an exciting insight into our various diverse fields of projects such as national and international corporate restructurings, transactions and tax planning projects for banks, insurance companies, asset managers and investment companies as well as funds.
- Take part in the opportunity to work-on multiple client-related projects around tax transparency regulations designed to combat offshore tax evasion (e.g. Automatic Exchange of Information, US FATCA, QI or EU DAC6), by supporting our team of tax specialists in advising global financial institutions to implement new international tax regulations
- Work directly with senior team members, assisting them with regulatory researches, client presentations, proposals and drafting of memorandums on complex tax-regulatory issues. In addition, you might participate in client meetings or support clients with ad-hoc reviews and audits or short-term assignments.
- Take responsibility for your own career with a clear, long-term career path with internal and external professional training offers for your development

Who we are looking for

- You have a Master degree or are currently enrolled in your last year, preferably in business administration, economics or law, ideally with tax knowledge
- You have a positive and pragmatic attitude as well as the willingness to take over responsibility
- You are interested in investigating complex questions and an attitude that corresponds to our most important values: be curious and bold, respectful and integrative
- You are interested in obtaining the Certified Swiss Tax Expert qualification/Master in Swiss and International Taxation/LL.M on Swiss and International Taxation

- You communicate fluently in German and English. Any further languages would be an advantage.

Your team

Become part of a diverse, multinational and highly motivated team of 20 employees in our office in Zurich or Lausanne. We will help you grow both personally and professionally: through our trainings, mentoring programmes and on-the-job learning, but also by connecting with your colleagues across all business lines.
